

PICNIC IN THE PARK

Bringing the forests to town

Join us for a family day celebrating Tasmania's forests and hear from those working to protect them.

SATURDAY 28TH JANUARY

Parliament House Lawns, Hobart 11am to 4pm.

Speakers at 11.30am, discussion groups from 12.30pm.

- Speakers include Senator Christine Milne and a live web-cast from Miranda, currently living 60m up the ObserverTree in a forest threatened with logging.
 - Stalls, information, discussion groups, film screenings, circus and kids entertainment, hot food, local produce, art and much, much more.
-

For more information visit:

www.huon.org

www.observertree.org

www.wilderness.org.au

www.stillwildstillthreatened.org

